

BOSTON GLOBE
29 October 1985ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 22

NEW ENGLAND NEWS BRIEFS

40 Harvard students protest CIA recruiting

Some 40 students from a coalition of undergraduate political groups yesterday protested against the Central Intelligence Agency in front of Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. The demonstration, timed to coincide with the presence of CIA recruiters at the graduate school, was the first action directed against the CIA at Harvard in recent years, according to organizers of the protest.